SCRIPT DEVELOPMENT READING SERIES

February 10 – March 24
Thursday evenings, 7 p.m.

I am needing some help in developing a new comedy which I have written. So I would like to invite some of our very talented actors and actresses to come and read the parts to assist me in my re-writing process. Comments welcome! (Everybody's a writer, aren't they?) At any rate, I hope this is fun... I know it will be helpful for me.

So, here's the idea:

A series of Thursday evening readings based on a new script "Peeps", a one act comedy. There are six on stage characters and one off stage character (Trudi, a teenage girl.) We will need: Two women age 40-50, two men age 40-50 and I have two elderly women characters who I would like to have their parts read by two men age 70-ish.

I have broken the script down in scenes for reading. Would like people to come having read the parts. I imagine several run throughs with different people.

But, I am NOT a director, so if there is a better way to organize it, I'm sure someone will offer advice.

Please join us at 7:00 p.m. for two hours of reading. Wine and snacks served.

Location: 38 Kendall Ave., Rutland, VT 05701
